

Easy access to a wide variety of viewpoints is essential for the preservation of our democracy. There is no way that the public is going to have this easy access to anything but propaganda if the rules regarding media ownership are relaxed. I am disturbed that this ruling is scheduled to take place without public debate and I urge you to rethink your positions and vote in favor of public, not corporate, interest.

Thank you.

Nanc